

UCT CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD NUMAN D. LOAFMAN

Numan D. Loafman of Fort Worth, Texas, was elected UCT Chairman of the Board at the organization's 131st annual convention held July 2018 in Savannah, Georgia. He served as UCT President during 2017-2018.

Numan has been an active member of Downtown Fort Worth Council 934 in Fort Worth since 1999. He has served through the local line of offices, earning his past local president honors. He has also served through the Texas Regional Council line of offices and earned his past regional president honors. Numan has also served on a number of committees on the international level.

Numan was born in Commerce, Texas, and worked on the family farm and ranch in the Panhandle of Texas until graduating from Texas Tech University. He has a bachelor's of science degree with a minor in business, including business law, economics and accounting. He is experienced in the insurance industry as an independent agent and also as working in a large corporate environment. Numan has extensive knowledge of the insurance industry from individual and small group health insurance, life insurance and Medicare supplement. He also holds a property and casualty license in Texas.

He served in the United States Army and was stationed in South Korea along the Demilitarized Zone and attained the rank of Sergeant E-5.

Numan and Dianna Loafman, UCT Past International President, together have four children and a granddaughter. They are both members of Holy Apostles Episcopal Church, the Fort Worth Airpower Council, and the Fort Worth Dinner Dance Club.