

UCT Secretary-Treasurer
Rick Redman

Rick Redman of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, has been a member of Baton Rouge Council 499 since 2007. He is currently the council's secretary-treasurer. He is both a past local president and a past regional president of the Mississippi-Louisiana region. He was honored with the Voris King Award (Fraternalist of the Year) by the Mississippi-Louisiana Regional Council in 2016. On the international level he has served on the examining finance committee for five years, four of those years as chairperson.

Rick graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. He spent 15 years in Dallas Texas working in corporate accountancy for Southwestern Contracting, Triangle Pacific Corporation, Lennox Industries, and the BritWill Company while earning his CPA certification. He retired from accounting to open a Minuteman Press printing business. After three years of managing and marketing the business, he sold it to go into sales full-time for Sears Roebuck and Honda, Nissan, and Ford dealerships. He relocated to Baton Rouge in 1998, where he rejoined Sears in appliance sales and retired in 2017.

An active member of his community, Rick has served as an usher at Healing Place Church and Purpose Church. He gives his time to such causes as Special Olympics, Louisiana Public Broadcasting, Braveheart Children in Need and Cheering for Chico. He also supports Pinbusters, Capital City Rollers, and Special Friends, which help individuals with intellectual disabilities.

