

UCT President Dianna Wolfe

Dianna Wolfe of Racine, Wisconsin, is a member of Racine Council 337. She is a past local officer, a past regional president, and she currently functions as secretary-treasurer of Council 337 and has done so for more than 20 years. She has served on a number of committees on the international level and has been a Fraternalist in Action.

She is the daughter of the late UCT Past International President Ed Stuebe and the late Addie Stuebe and is the first child of a past international president to be elected UCT president.

Now retired, she is a former owner/operator of Packer Inn and has worked as a document control supervisor, a quality assurance manager, and a regulatory affairs specialist.

Dianna is a longtime UCT volunteer who puts in countless hours each year giving back to her community through her local council. She is a recipient of the Medline Torch Award and has been honored as QA Person of the Year. She is a lifetime member of the VFW Auxiliary.
