

UCT Director Bernie Regenbogen

Bernd (Bernie) Regenbogen is a member of Jack Kidd Council 755 in Saint John, New Brunswick. He is a past local president and a past regional president, and he has served on many committees on the local, regional, and international levels.

He was one of the members of UCT's Multi-Generational Advisory Board, which provided impetus for changes that the organization has experienced over the past few years. He also served on the Canadian Task Force and is a past president of the Canadian delegation. He is the chair of Council 755's Bingo committee and calls TV Bingo.

Bernie has always been active in his community. When his children were small, he was involved in Little League Baseball as an umpire and a division head. He also umpired girls' softball and was a mentor in the Junior Achievement program. He was a member of the organizing committee for the 2009 provincial Special Olympics summer games and is a past board member of the Catena Training Centre, a workshop for individuals with intellectual disabilities.

He is a past member of the Saint John planning advisory committee. In the municipal elections in 2016 he was elected to the District Educational Council (school board) for the local school district. He was chair of PRO Kids, which provides positive recreational opportunities for disadvantaged children.

Bernie was the coordinator of the Saint John Executives Association and was responsible for organizing weekly meetings and handling all financial aspects of the organization.

He has operated a Benjamin Moore paint and decorating center for the past 32 years.
